

The no call list is a fantastic tool for those who do not want unnecessary phone calls. My mother is homebound and I am her caregiver and it is so nice to not be bothered by unwanted phone calls. It is difficult for my mother to get around and she does not need the extra burden of answering calls from solicitors. It's so nice to be able to fix and eat dinner and spend quality time together without interruptions. Please keep things they way they are!